Summary

I am a B.Tech student specializing in AI & ML at Vellore Institute of Technology, currently gain I am passionate about leveraging Generative AI, AI Agents, Data Science, and Full-Stack Development to build impactful and innovative solutions.

My technical skills include C++, Python, SQL, MERN Stack, and expertise in frameworks like React.js, TensorFlow, and PyTorch. I have developed projects ranging from a multilingual AI-powered psychiatrist chatbot and Multi label image classification using AGCN. I thrive in collaborative environments and enjoy tackling real-world challenges with creative and effective solutions.

I am eager to connect with like-minded professionals and explore opportunities to contribute to meaningful projects in AI, machine learning, and software development.
